

A One day workshop on 'Role and Relevance of Ethics, Innovation and IPRS in Changing Academic Environment' was organised on 8th August 2018 by IPR Cell , Aggarwal College Ballabgarh. In the Inaugural session, Principal Dr. KrishanKant Gupta welcomed the guests and congratulated the organisers to take such a relevant topic in present academic session. Dr. KrishanKant Gupta said that IPR is necessary to the success of research. The Patent system serves to encourage the researcher for the development of new innovations in various fields. Convenor Dr. Manoj Shukla presented the theme of the workshop and laid stress on the necessity and importance of IPR while doing research. The workshop was divided in to two technical sessions. In first technical session, Prof. S. K. Chakarvarti Ex NIT, Kurukshetra deliberated on IPR Promotes Innovation and Research Adorned with Ethics.' He emphasised on original knowledge and unconventional approach while doing research.

In the second technical session, Ms. Pooja Kumar, Patent Attorney, Founder and Director, Innove Intellects, Ghaziabad delivered her talk on 'Retrieving and Learning from past Research in Ethical Way'. She cited various examples to make the audience aware about patent laws, industrial design and trademark design. The workshop concluded with vote of thanks by Dr. Manoj Shukla. Dr. Shilpa Goyal Organising Secretary conducted the stage. Dr. Geeta Gupta and Dr. Sarika Kanjlia were the Joint Secretaries.