English Language Society, Department of English, Aggarwal College Ballabgarh organised a 'Workshop on Theatrics' on 30th March 2019 in the college in collaboration with Brij Nat Mandli, Faridabad under the able guidance of Principal Dr. Krishan Kant. Mr. Brij Mohan Bhardwaj, a renowned personality in the world of dramatics, guided the students about the finer sensibilities of acting. He said that a lot of emotions go into the making of a character and play. He also told the students that joining theatre can give a great fillip to one's career graph. Ms. Kamal Tandon, Head of Department also motivated the students by saying that stagecraft, art and other such skills can stimulate one's faculties and make us more sensitive, sensible and rational. She further added that it also improves our analytical powers. The students of BA II year enacted the stage adaption of famous play 'The Monkey's Paw' by W.W. Jacobs in which they showed that one should not use unnatural means to mould one's destiny. The play was a powerhouse of emotions such as comedy, tragedy, horror and suspense laced with supernatural elements. Faculty of department of English - Dr. Geeta Gupta, Dr. Sarika Kanjlia and Ms. Vijaya were present. Around 85 students were benefitted.
