

A 7day DGHE sponsored National level Faculty Development Program has been organised by IQAC Cell , Aggarwal College Ballabgarh on the theme ‘Cardinal role of Quality Education in developing Self-Reliant India.’ The FDP is from July 7-14th,2021. Day 1 started with Inaugural Ceremony. The Chief Guest of the inaugural ceremony was Professor Rajbir Singh, Vice Chancellor M.D. University Rohtak. He spoke at length about the relevance of such high quality Faculty Development Programs which would contribute to the overall growth of all stakeholders. Professor Dinesh Kumar, Vice Chancellor JC Bose University of Science and Technology (YMCA) Faridabad was the Guest of Honour . He congratulated the organisers and Principal Dr Krishan Kant Gupta for organising such a programme on a very relevant topic. Sh Atul Kothari, Rashtriya Sachiv, Shiksha Sanskriti Utthan Nyas presided over the programme. He laid emphasis on bringing about a significant transformation in education system based on values. Smt. Reeta Gupta , Joint Director NPE Department of Higher Education, Haryana was the Special Guest. She said that quality education is the need of the hour especially in the times of crises. The 7 Day Faculty Development Programme is being organised under the chief patron ship of Shri Devendra Kumar Gupta President Governing Body Aggarwal College Ballabhgarh and Patron Dr Krishan Kant Principal Aggarwal College Ballabgarh. In his address Dr Krishan Kant said that quality is the key to prosperity and the responsibility lies with educational institutions to meet emerging challenges. He also said that time is ripe to reorient education and make it socially and globally relevant. Dr. Manoj Shukla is the conveyor of the FDP, Dr Naresh Kamra is the co conveyor and Dr Geeta Gupta is the Organising Secretary of the FDP. A book titled ‘International Business Environment’ authored by Dr Narender Kumar, Dr Lakshmi Gupta and Dr Rekha Sain was also released on the occasion.

On the first day of the FDP, we had Dr. M.S Shyamasundar, Advisor, NAAC as the Resource Person who spoke on the topic titled ‘Dimensions, Expectations and Implementation of NEP 2020 in HEIs’. He discussed about various aspects of NEP 2020 in detail and provided an in-depth knowledge of its benefits as per current times. He stated the key principles of it ranging from equity and inclusion, usage of technology, boosting critical and conceptual thinking and many more. The next resource person of the day was Dr. Krishan Kant Gupta, Principal, Aggarwal College Ballabgarh who spoke on the topic ‘Mentoring: Role and Responsibility of Teachers in Higher Education’. The First day of the FDP saw an active participation from all over India with around 250 academicians.