

Workshop For Teachers/Administrators in Higher Education Institutions Significance & Utility of Intellectual Property Rights

Today on 06/10/2021 Intellectual Property Cell along with Internal Quality Cell (IQAC) of Aggarwal College Ballabgarh organized one day workshop on the topic 'Significance & Utility of Intellectual Property Rights' approved by the Director General, Higher Education, Haryana. The objective of the workshop was to make the college teachers aware of processes and benefits of Intellectual Property Rights while doing research. The Chief Guest in the Inaugural Function Prof.(Dr.) Prasannanshu from National Law University, Dwarka, New Delhi delivered the keynote address and emphasized the research culture in the institutions and also highlighted the need for awareness of Intellectual Property Rights. Principal Dr. Krishan Kant while delivering the inaugural address elaborated on knowledge regarding Intellectual Property Rights and need for research environment in the colleges as it improves the quality of teaching. Dr Manoj Shukla, Convener of the workshop explained about the Subtheme of technical. Dr Dimple Organizing Secretary conducted the workshop. Prof. S.K. Chakarwari in this talk explained need for practicing ethics in research. Mr. Govind Sharma, Former Chief, National Research Development Corporation explained that academics should know how to use existing knowledge for their research and also how to protect your research and take dividends from your works. He also explained various laws related to Intellectual Property Rights. There was a special session on Patenting. More than hundred teachers from various Universities and Colleges participated in the workshop. Dr. Sanjeev Gupta, Co-convener proposed the vote of thanks.