

Today, on 23rd December, 2021, a National Webinar was organized on Emerging Trends in Contemporary Politics in India by Department of Political Science, Aggarwal College, Ballabgarh. Present Scenario of Indian Politics requires discussion over various topics and this theme was appropriate according to the current political situation. The webinar was jointly organised by Aggarwal College, Ballabgarh and Gandhi Memorial National College, Ambala to commemorate Aazadi ka Amrit Mahotsav, an Initiative of Government of India to celebrate progressive 75 years of Independence. Dr. Surender Singh, Head of Department of Political Science, G.M.N College, Ambala was the distinguished speaker of the webinar. He told about the changing trends happening in Indian Politics due to caste, religion and identity and how it influences people and their lives. He expressed the importance of federal structure, strong opposition and involvement of women in Indian Politics. He also highlighted the fact that Politics nowadays has become more Person Oriented rather than Nation Oriented. The program was organised under the able and positive guidance of Principal Dr. Krishan Kant. He welcomed all the faculty members and students from various states and addressed the gathering by telling the importance of discussion of such topics for progressive Democracy and congratulated the organisers for the success of the event.

Dr. Rajpal Singh, Principal, G.M.N College, Ambala also motivated the participants to think logically and not get engaged in vote bank politics. The Webinar was a great success as nearly 200 participants registered and listened to esteemed speaker. The Program was organised by Dr. Ritu and Ms. Udit Kundu.
